About DanceHE:

DanceHE, represents the interests of its HEI members to organisations such as the funding councils, HEFCE and HEA in areas concerning funding, policy and processes. Acting as a mediating body DanceHE facilitates collaboration and debate across institutions – drawing together teachers, practitioners and researchers to share information and best practice.

DANCE HE Sustaining the Discipline - 28th-29th October 2016.

- Debating dance scholarship and research at a time when arts knowledge and engagement face precarious economic futures.
 - Taking Sustainability as our central theme and we invite you to explore the value and further progress of dance as a social, cultural asset and route to individual identity.
